INVESTMENT UPDATE AND NTA STATEMENT

31 May 2018

PERFORMANCE UPDATE

May was mixed for global equity markets. The strongest markets were the S&P500 (+2.4%) and FTSE100 (+2.8%). The rest of the world was modestly higher, except for Europe and Japan which were 1-2% lower.

Global markets continue to remain nervous over US-China trade tensions, while political instability in Italy emerged late in the month. The bond market initially continued its selloff with yields pushing higher, the benchmark US 10-year treasury yield reaching 3.1% mid-month, its highest level since July 2011, before rallying strongly on the re-emergence of trade and political uncertainty.

The domestic market was mixed. Within the benchmark ASX All Ordinaries Accumulation Index, Health Care (+5.1%) and Materials (+2.2%) did best due to their exposure to overseas influences. There was a bounce in Consumer Discretionary (+6.0%) after a period of poor performance whilst REITs (+3.7%) and Utilities (+1.0) did better as bonds rallied. Telco's stood out as the poor performer again in May (-8.6%).

Domestically focused stocks have been negatively impacted by changes (and threats of changes) to Government policy. Most significant of these is the Royal Commission into Financial Services, which is impacting banking, wealth management and insurance. While other policies are affecting telecommunications, gas, electricity, fund administration, gaming and infrastructure management.

Performance of the portfolio for the month was in line with the broader market at 1.3%. Portfolio returns over the 3-months (portfolio -1.3% versus index +1.2%) and 1-year (4.9% versus 10.8%) periods have lagged whilst returns since inception remain strong at 8.4%.

Significant stock gains over the month included IPH Ltd (+23.0%), Super Retail Group (+17.8%), Bapcor (+13.6%) and Southern Cross Media (+12.1%). IPH and Super Retail Group recovered some previous underperformance, while Bapcor continued its good performance. The biggest detractor for the month was Automotive Holdings (-17.8%), declining after downgrading earnings driven by a weaker than expected recovery in sales.

The cash weighting in the fund is 11.0%. The fund has begun deploying more cash into the market with a target weight of 5.0% over time.

PORTFOLIO OUTLOOK

With the confluence of political uncertainty and question marks over global growth and inflation, we expect continued volatility in markets this year. Although the equities appear to be in late cycle, the absolute low level of inflation and continued reasonable growth provide an attractive backdrop for equities. A slowdown in regulatory influence locally will be likely taken very positively.

Cash will be allocated into stocks where we see solid, attractive and sustainable yields backed by good balance sheets and stable businesses. We continue to target a gross yield above the market yield.
